Electric Diaphragm Pumps

The benefits of diaphragm pump technology are endless for the user.

Diaphragm pumps are a great choice when it comes to handling a variety of materials.

- Elimination of pulsation for smooth application
- Low maintenance – virtually maintenance free
- Low pulsation – extremely fine and even spray pattern, even at low pressures
- Ideal for fine finishing work
- Effective with hoppers for small colour batches
- Able to be run dry without damage.
